Coalition of African American Pastors, USA Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

HENDERSON, NV – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of Coalition of African American Pastors, USA of Henderson, NV.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Coalition of African American Pastors, USA joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to increase fellowship and communication among African-American pastors of all Christian denominations, to magnify the voice of the black Church on important moral and policy questions in the public square,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 2012, Coalition of African American Pastors, USA (www.caapusa.org) investigates public policies to determine their impact on the black community and the black church and Americans in general and to educate the public at large about issues of importance to the African-American community, with a special focus on advancing and protecting educational opportunity, reducing poverty, respecting life, and protecting and strengthening marriage.

To learn more about Coalition of African American Pastors, USA and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch®, ECFA’s program that matches God’s servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA’s newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
